Session Learning Goals

- Describe goals for Bangkok 2025: International Conference on Assessing Quality in Higher Education (“International Conference”)
- Identify the International Conference themes
- Recognize the options to disseminate content at the International Conference and through Assessment Update
- Submit a proposal by the priority deadline of Friday, November 15, 2024
- Attend the International Conference at The Westin Grande Sukhumvit in Bangkok, Thailand, June 22-25, 2025

International Conference Goals

- Provide an international venue to disseminate research, scholarship, and practice-informed ideas related to the conference themes
- Discuss opportunities and issues facing the global higher education landscape
- Promote cross-cultural dialogues and resource sharing with conference participants
- Offer a smaller, more intimate gathering through which to network and build relationships with colleagues from other contexts

Conference Themes

- Strategic Directions: executing purposeful planning and forward-thinking approaches related to quality in higher education
- Inclusive Environments: fostering diverse and welcoming spaces and contexts for all individuals
- Innovative Instruction: implementing leading-edge teaching methods to enhance learning experiences
- Engaged Learning: facilitating active participation and immersive educational experiences that promote student involvement
- Student Success: supporting and empowering students to achieve their personal, academic, and professional goals

Options to Disseminate Content

Option 1, Panelist:

- One person submits a single 100-word abstract and will be assigned to participate in a moderated panel related to one of the conference themes
- This option is only available to individuals
- Panel sessions will occur on Monday and Tuesday and will be composed of up to four individuals participating in moderated discussion and audience engagement
- No PowerPoint/visuals, but handouts/electronic resources are encouraged

Options to Disseminate Content

Option 2, Poster Presenter(s):

- Up to two people submit a single 100-word abstract for a poster related to one of the conference themes
- This option permits co-presenter involvement
- Posters will be displayed during the Sunday evening welcome reception/poster session and on Monday and Tuesday, with posters affixed to boards
- No electronic poster displays, but handouts/electronic resources are encouraged

Options to Disseminate Content

Special Issue of Assessment Update:

- Assessment Update is a bimonthly periodical from Wiley with a broad and diverse readership
- All presenters—panelists and poster presenters—will be invited to develop an article for a special issue of Assessment Update on the International Conference
- Articles will be due in late-August 2025, and the special issue will be published in November/December 2025
