ILOs, PLOs, and CLOs, Oh My!

- Leverage whatever you can
 - Timing
 - Leadership support
 - Unexpected funding
- Don't take it personally
- Be as flexible as possible
- Find (or create) assessment champions
- Constantly communicate, even with (seemingly) peripheral groups

ENTERING DATA IN NUVENTIVE

- Able to send emails with links to assignments – can easily resend timely reminders
- Can save in-progress work and complete later in semester
- Single sign-on system

“ASSESSMENT IS NOT A SPREADSHEET, IT’S A CONVERSATION”

ACTION PLANNING

Ability to aggregate, organize, and visualize data – faculty can view it while completing an action plan.

How did this help?

- Reduce hours of work for assessment professionals
- Have access to data sooner – anyone with access can log in and view
- Can benefit from both quantitative and qualitative data

EXPANSION — PROGRAM REVIEW PROCESS

Program Review: Detailed report (per academic program) that must be submitted to State Board of Regents – 5-year cycle, with internal mid-cycle review process

How did this help?

- Easy edit of account access allowed relevant faculty members to collaborate on report
- Able to integrate various documents for viewing while simultaneously completing form
- Able to tailor to what State Regent's need – can use report feature to minimize editing

STRATEGIC PLANNING/OPERATIONAL ASSESSMENT

- Institution-wide process: departments submit goals and provide updates

How does this help?

- Ability to align goals with TCC's strategic plan or KPIs
- Report feature allows ability to check progress or see a comprehensive view
