Listen to the Leading Improvements in Higher Education Podcast

Leading Improvements in Higher Education is an award-winning podcast service of the Assessment Institute in Indianapolis. The podcast profiles people, initiatives, institutions, and organizations improving conditions in higher education. Join thought leaders for engaging discussions of enduring and emerging topics, themes, and trends affecting colleges and universities.

We are in the midst of Season 2, which premiered during the 2021 Assessment Institute. We encourage listeners to also check out the 26 episodes from Season 1, many of which featured representatives from national associations, research organizations, and initiatives—all of whom are partners of the Assessment Institute—sharing important ideas and trends from their various perspectives.

Releases of 1-2 episodes per month will continue to profile the important work of assessment and improvement along with other topics of interest to the higher education community. If you know someone who may be interested in the podcast, please encourage them to give Leading Improvements in Higher Education a listen.

Listeners may access the podcast via common streaming services, podcast apps, or at our website, <https://assessmentinstitute.iupui.edu/overview/podcast-episodes.html>.
